What is EXCO?

EXCO is a collective of Experimental Colleges in the Twin Cities that shares visions of a better world, offers free and open classes and is building a community around education for social change. EXCO strives to offer the Twin Cities communities the opportunity to teach or learn in a space open to alternative education and all kinds of knowledge, particularly those that have been historically marginalized. Everyone can teach or take classes and all classes are free!

What Should I Know About Teaching?

Classes can be on skill or knowledge. The summer session starts the week of June 15th and the fall session starts the week of September 22nd. Most classes will meet once a week on evenings or weekends; classes can meet anywhere in the Twin Cities. Teachers are volunteers but we may be able to support those who couldn't teach otherwise up to $300. We also provide money for supplies as we are able.

Past classes include: Latino Labor Organizing, Basic Songwriting, Global Warming and Energy, The Social Responsibility of African American Music, Experimental Film, Bike Maintenance, Anarchist Anthropology, and many more!
